Web: PCS and Bamboo Removal event posted. Youth sailing also posted Bamboo event.

Habitat Heroes:

- Patricia Frederick responded on the website, Carol Collison expressed interest as well.
- Still need a sign. Brad K to design then print with our logo in full color. Signs by tomorrow in Annapolis was used for the rain garden sign.
- Choose first winner? Laura Shrank by voice vote wins. Include in April Caper article, with link to Laura's bio article. Gift certificate? Adkins Arboretum? Save room for a "bolt on" sponsor line.

Membership Drive:

- We had new members from Atlantis and Log Inn Rd.
- In addition to email solicitations, should we consider a snail mail campaign? Bulk rate permit? Mary Lamb or Leslie would have pricing info.
- Would CSCIA board consider letting us access homeowner database? (no) Our Dropbox has lots of contact info.
- FSI in the Caper? Check with Mary for cost.

Project Clean Stream: Lots of volunteers signing up, supplies ordered, message board reserved, on track for success.

Bamboo Removal:

- No dumpster this time, Sawyers to chip it.
- Sunday March 18th
- Marita away, Brad Hill unable, Brad K unlikely.
- Beau getting a survey of boundaries?
- Smash or cut bamboo "cups" to deter Asian tiger mosquitoes.

Harbor School Day of Service:

May 11th 9:30-11:30. Suggestions for work?

- Mulch renewal for path at Lake Claire? Richards could supply?
- Will need a couple of us (Bill R?) to attend
- Wheel barrows and pitch forks needed.

Strawberry Festival Parade: We could dress up Phil's trailer, pull behind my red Pathfinder

WSA Buffer Bundles: Stacey suggests we could get a lot of saplings from this program to plant in a Lake Claire ravine.

Next Meeting: Elect Officers, at least one (VP)

SAV Planting: Brad K to check with Carl Treff of MRA, see if equipment from previous campaign still available.

Louise Zeitlin has proclaimed major compliments to Cape Conservation Corps.
